Background

The California Institute for Mental Health (CiMH) was established in 1993 to provide training, technical assistance, research, and policy development related to mental health service delivery. Among its many other activities and areas of focus, CiMH is under contract to provide training and technical assistance related to the Mental Health Services Act. A recent CiMH priority has been healthcare reform and the integration of mental health and primary care.

Presentation

Dr. Sandra Naylor Goodwin, Ph.D., founding President and CEO of CiMH for over 30 years, will present information regarding current CiMH projects, including activities related to best practices, county collaboratives, and resource clearinghouses.
