Contra Costa County Innovative Project

Contra Costa County is requesting $1,000,000 dollars for a four-year Innovative Project titled:

Partners in Aging

- Contra Costa County proposes to serve clients aged 55 years and older who are frail, homebound, and suffer from mental health issues by combining two evidence-based practices: Screening Brief Intervention Referral to Treatment (SBIRT) and Improving Mood Providing Access to Collaborative Treatment (IMPACT) project.
- A key goal is to improve the County's IMPACT teams' ability to treat older adults with depression by adding additional SBIRT capacity to identify and address alcohol misuse. The project will also expand IMPACT's multi-disciplinary treatment team by adding a peer component.
